

THE UNIVERSITY OF AKRON
College of Applied Service Technology
Emergency Management

Course Title: Emergency Response Preparedness Planning
Course Number: (0 + 6350
Course Credits: 3 credit hours
Prerequisites: None

Course Description:

Legal requirements, planning formats, and response procedures are presented. Special focus on community risk assessment: hazard analysis, vulnerability assessment, and community response capability assessment.

Program Outcomes:

- Demonstrate the capability to implement Emergency Planning Concepts and Metrics
- Develop and evaluate the components of a Hazard Vulnerability Analysis and Risk Assessment
- Develop and evaluate the components of an Emergency Operations Plans and Continuity of Operations Plans
- Demonstrate the capability to implement an Incident Command System
- Demonstrate the capability to implement Exercises

Course Outline:

System, Incident Command System
Topic 12: Organizational Behavior during Disasters
What is Effective Organizational

(Disaster) Response?

Accessibility, located in Simmons Hall, 105 (97928).