and must work with a faculty advisor. The Center for Constitutional Law can assist in finding a faculty advisor.

Students intending to

- Obtain admission approval from the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs.

Advisors are not required to complete a Constitutional Law Certificate application. Students who are advised by a designated faculty advisor can apply for the Constitutional Law Certificate as early as the second year of attendance. The earlier a student begins working with a faculty advisor, the better.

The recommended timeframe to apply for the Constitutional Law Certificate is the second year for full-time students and the third year for part-time students. If a student misses this recommended timeframe, they can still work with the Office of Student Affairs to submit an application so long as the application and course tracking sheet are submitted prior to the completion of JD coursework.

Timely submission of BOTH a Certificate Application and the Constitutional Law Certificate Course Selection, Tracking and Approval List is a prerequisite to earning a certificate. Failure to comply with any requirement may result in failure to earn a Certificate.

First, complete the following information. Second, see a Constitutional Law faculty advisor for counsel and obtain
