

3359-7-01.1 Records compliance office.

- (A) The records compliance officer shall coordinate the university's compliance with the Ohio public records act, Revised Code 149.011 et. seq., including but not limited to gathering information sought by the requestor, assisting in the proper redaction of information from those records, and providing for the inspection of such information by the requestor or furnishing copies to the requestor. In order for the university to comply fully with